

From Tradition to Vision
Symposium at HUMlab, Umeå University, December 6–7, 2001

Programme

Thursday, December 6

1:00 p.m.

Opening of the symposium by Inge-Bert Täljedal, Vice-Chancellor of Umeå University

1:10 p.m.

Introductory session with Patrik Svensson and Ulrike Klingemann

1:30 p.m.

Keynote Speech

Uschi Felix: Ask not what the Web can do for us — ask what we can do with the Web!

2:30 p.m.

Coffee break

3:00 p.m.

Jonas Carlquist: Digital media in language teaching and learning: how to work with new kinds of materials in a practical and analytical way.

4:00 p.m.

Jean Hudson: Grammar in focus: corpora, interactive exercises and tomorrow's grammar books.

5:00 p.m.

Laser harp, plasma screen and 3D spectacles — language teaching and learning aids? (HUMlab)

In the evening:

Symposium Dinner at the Old City Hall restaurant Rex (<http://www.rexbar.com/>)

Friday, December 7

8:30 a.m.

Patrik Svensson: Where can we find new values? A journey among virtual places, visual knowledge representation and computer-supported simulations.

9:30 a.m.

Coffee break

10:00 a.m.

Virtual environments in practice (HUMlab)

11:00 a.m.

Usch Felix: Students as Informants for Web-based Learning Design

12:00 a.m.

IT in academic language teaching and learning (ITAS) — a national network.

1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

After the fair — an additional workshop for especially interested participants. It will be possible to test software and technology in the HUMlab and the language lab, for example tools for visual display of sound (such as WinPitch and Lingus) and on-line tests in practice.